

PRAY FOR HEALING

WHAT TO DO:

Do you need healing in your body, your heart, or your mind?
Or do you know someone who is hurting and needs to be healed?

The Bible says that Jesus is our Healer. He can heal us physically when we're sick, and emotionally when we feel sad, scared, or broken inside.

Take a bandage and write your name on it if you need healing— or write the name of someone you want to pray for. Then stick it on the board that says "Jesus Heals" because we can be confident that God hears us when we pray.

WHAT TO PRAY:

- "Jesus, I know You have the power to heal. Please heal me (or the person I'm praying for)."
- "God, thank You that You care when we're hurting. I trust You to bring healing in Your perfect way."

BIBLE VERSES TO THINK ABOUT:

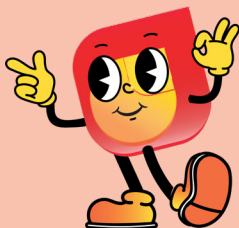

ISAIAH 53:5 - "By His wounds we are healed."

JAMES 5:15 - "The prayer of faith will make the sick person well, the Lord will raise them up."

PSALM 147:3 - "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

REMEMBER:

Jesus still heals today. Sometimes He heals us right away, and sometimes He works in ways we don't expect— but He always loves us and is always with us.

Leader Note – Pray for Healing Station

This station invites children to bring both physical and emotional needs to Jesus. It's a tender space where they may express things they haven't shared out loud—pain, sickness, sadness, or concern for someone they love.

The goal here is not to promise immediate results but to help kids understand that Jesus is the Healer, and that He cares deeply about their hurts.

As you guide students:

- Affirm that Jesus still heals today.
- Let them know it's okay to pray for themselves or someone else.
- Remind them that healing doesn't always happen instantly, but that God always hears and responds with love.

When children write a name or need on a bandage and stick it to the board, encourage them to see it as a step of faith—a way of saying, "I trust God with this."

Some students may be praying for big things (like cancer or anxiety), while others may ask for help with small wounds or a friend's cold. Honor each request equally—God does.

Key truths to gently reinforce:

- "Jesus cares when we're hurting."
- "He sees what we're going through, even if no one else does."
- "Sometimes healing is quick, and sometimes it takes time. But God never leaves us."

If a child gets emotional or opens up about something serious, be present, pray with gentleness, and follow your local church's pastoral care protocol as needed. The goal is for them to feel seen, loved, and safe in the presence of Jesus.
